to answer questions directly.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: I'm always right too, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: (Laugh) See, there you go. First thing out of his mouth is wrong, but I'll overlook that. (Laugh) Senator Schellpeper, you're pretty quick on the draw this afternoon. But here's what I'm going to ask you. Weren't some of these amendments adopted for the purpose of removing opposition that various individuals and groups had to the bill the way it had been drafted originally?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: What do you mean by amendments? The original bill, the...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Changes in the bill are...

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...being...yeah, to overcome various...

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...oppositions that people had expressed.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: That were brought up over the last four years that I carried the bill, five years.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. And so you decided to get off the horse and tell Janssen, you try to get him across the finish...

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...line...

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: No, he...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...this time, huh?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: He's a...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Huh?
